

BIG MAJORITY OF SHOPMEN FAVOR STRIKE

Heads of Shop Craft Unions Announce They Will Comply With Men's Decision

BLAME LABOR BOARD

Has Practically Nullified Provisions of Transportation Act, They Charge

Cincinnati, June 15.—An overwhelming majority in favor of a strike being cast by members of eleven shop crafts and a maintenance of way unions, sought by the heads of the unions affected by recent decisions of the Railroad Labor Board. The leaders added that they would comply with the members' decision.

The combined membership of the unions affected totals 1,225,000 men.

"We would not feel the strike to be the only solution," said the statement, "if the attitude of managements did not block all possibility of the other better alternative."

The statement criticized wage cuts made by the Railroad Labor Board declaring "it has so reduced standards that the strike becomes an act of self-preservation."

First indication of the attitude of the railway union heads came earlier in the day during a speech by B. M.
Jewell, head of the railway employes department, before the American Federation of Labor convention, when he declared that the men would decide the strike issue. Following this address, the rail union heads went into session, at the conclusion of which the statement was issued.

Responsibility for the strike situation was placed on the Railroad Labor board by the union's statement, which said that "the board has practically nullified the provisions of the transportation act."

The statement said that the board "has openly failed in its function under the act by failing to afford the employees an opportunity to secure just and reasonable wages through its orderly proceedings as a substitute for strike action."

HOUSE TO DECIDE PROPOSED MUSCLE SHOALS IMPROVEMENT

Washington, June 15.—The house conference committee on the military appropriation bill decided today to submit direct to the house the senate amendment appropriating $7,500,000 for continuation of work on dam No.
2 of the Muscle Shoals power project in Alabama.

The decision, it was said at the conclusion of a meeting of the conference committee, was due to a belief of the house committee that the house settlement on the question should be expressed by its representatives.

It was declared that the majority of the house delegation appeared to favor a restoration of the senate amendment, which was attached to the appropriation by a large though unrecorded vote. Senate members of the conference, therefore, it was explained, were bound to urge acceptance of the senate action unless such a stand would entirely block an agreement.

FIVE RUM RUNNERS ARE CAPTURED IN ONE NIGHT

New York, June 15.—Nets spread for rum runners by prohibition agents yielded five vessels in one night in three North Atlantic ports.

This was the official announcement made today by United States Attorney Hayward, who added that search was made for two more vessels, alleged to have acted in concert with the captive craft in running 40,000 gallons of alcohol and 2,000 cases of whiskey into the United States in March and May.

Today, two men were arrested charged with conspiracy to violate the customs laws and bench warrants were out for six alleged conspirators.

CAYUGA COUNTY BANS HEARST WANTS A "REAL DEMOCRAT"

Auburn, June 14.—"There is absolutely no Hearst sentiment in this section of the state," Democratic Chairman James J. Cohen today told William J. Connors, who is making a tour of the state in the interest of the nomination of William R. Hearst for governor. Mr. Geherin added that "Cayuga county insists upon the nomination of a real Democrat."

RICKARD DOUBTS JACK'S SINCERITY

Dempsey-Willard Match Improbable
This Year, He Says — Kearns Wants Bout With Willard

New York, June 15.—Tex Rickard, sports promoter, declaring that he is unimpressed by Jack Dempsey's sincerity in his declared willingness to meet Harry Willard, negro challenger, in a match for the heavyweight championship, said tonight he was not impressed with the prospect of such a bout this summer or fall.

"I will say right now that Dempsey will never get $500,000 from me for fighting Willard or anybody else," the promoter declared. "If he boxes for me he will work on a percentage and if he gets $200,000 he will be doing well."

"What makes me think Dempsey will not get into the ring with Willard this year is the price he puts on his services. I wonder what he and Kearns can be thinking of to demand half a million dollars? I am afraid that European trip turned their heads."

The promoter added that he had the same sentiment as regards "extravagant" guarantees in the case of Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion.

Willard recently posted $2,500 with the New York Athletic commission as a guarantee of his good faith in challenging Dempsey.

Dempsey-Willard Match?

Los Angeles, June 15.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion pugilist, may meet Jess Willard, from whom he won the title, in a return match next Labor day, Jack Kearns, manager of the champion, said late today.

Kearns said he was leaving for the east tomorrow and while there would take up propositions made by Floyd Fitzsimmons, Benton Harbor, Mich., promoter, and Tex Rickard of New York for a Dempsey-Willard match.

POLITICAL HOUSE CLEANING BEGINS

Cuba Selects Reform Cabinet and Agrees to Enact Vital Legislation Before June 30

(By the Associated Press.)

Havana, June 15.—Cuba began political house cleaning today with the selection of a reform cabinet and agreeing to enact vital legislation before June 30, the end of the fiscal year.

The new cabinet as tentatively agreed upon is as follows: Secretary of State—Carlos Manuel DeCéspedes; treasury, Aurelio Portu-ondo; government, Ricardo Lanciaz; war and navy, Brigadier General Armando Montes; justice, Erasmo Re-guiferos; public works, Captain De-metrio Castillo Pokorne; public instruction, Francisco Zayas; agriculture, Pedro Bontancourt; sanitation, Dr. A. Agramonte.

It is known that Aurelio Portuondo who has been chosen for the difficult financial post, is the only member of the cabinet who has not yet formally accepted a portfolio. He is at present in New York and has requested that he be allowed to reserve his decision until tomorrow.

WOULD EXEMPT DIVIDENDS

Building and Loan Officials Renew Attempt to Secure Enactment of State Tax Law.

Lake Placid, June 15.—Officials of the New York State League of Savings and Loan associations, at the 35th annual convention here today, made plain their determination to renew the unsuccessful effort of last year to secure enactment of a state law under which dividends to the amount of $300 derived from securities of such associations shall be exempt from income tax. Such dividends are now exempt from federal taxation, the official said.

Less mutual admiration and more constructive criticism was recommended to the 200 delegates by George V. McLaughlin, superintendent of state banks, in his address today. He also advocated a thorough advertising plan, putting the associations and their objects before the public.

Senator Charles G. Lockwood of Brooklyn, unable to attend, sent a resume of his address to be read at the convention. He declared that the land bank was important but the problem now was to aid the banks in obtaining exemption from federal taxation on bonds of the state bank. He also announced that the house committee is pushing the formation of a state trust commission.

Senator William M. Calder also was unable to attend.

INTOXICATION ON INCREASE.

New York, June 16.—More persons were arrested for intoxication in New York during 1921 than in either of the two preceding years, the annual report of the magistrates' courts revealed today. There were 6,726 offenders in 1921 compared with 6, 340 in 1920 and 5,657 in 1919.

The report showed a steady rise since 1917 in the total number of ar-restments, 372,100 having faced magistrates in 1921 and 360,559 the year before. Fines collected amounted to $1,234,565, or nearly $300,000 more than the figure four years previously.

WARD INDICTED; GOES TO JAIL

Wealthy Baker's Son Charged With First Degree Murder of Clarence Peters, Ex-Sailor

COMES AS SURPRISE

Ward's Attorneys Get Adjournment and Pleading Will Be Taken Today

White Plains, June 15.—Walter S.
Ward, wealthy baker's son, was lodged in the county jail tonight, following his arraignment in the supreme court late today on an indictment charging him with murder in the first degree, growing out of the death of Clarence Peters, former sailor, the morning of May 16.

The indictment was found by the May grand jury this afternoon after more than a week spent in investigating his story that he killed Peters in self-defense when the former sailor tried to intimidate him on a lonely road near the Kensico reservoir.

Ward was arrested in New York by Deputy Sheriff Frank Chieco, who went to New Rochelle, where Ward was some clothes, and then hurried on to White Plains after the prisoner had reassured his wife and two children.

At the courthouse, Ward met Allan R. Campbell, his attorney, and his brother. He was jovial and at times seemed almost happy as he chatted with them a moment or two.

Ward Granted Adjournment.

Justice Morschauer without preliminaries told Ward he had been indicted by the grand jury on a charge of murder in the first degree and asked him to plead.

Mr. Campbell interrupted to ask an adjournment.

"This came as a surprise," he said,
"and I would like a few moments to go over the indictment with John F.
Brennan, one of Mr. Ward's attorneys."

Justice Morschauer and District Attorney Weeks both agreed and it was decided that the pleading on the indictment should be taken tomorrow.

Ward was sent at once to jail. No request for bail was made after Justice Morschauer declared it was not a bailable offense and that he would entertain no motions to that end.

District Attorney Weeks said it would be practically impossible for him to go to trial soon. It seemed probable, he said, that Ward would not be tried before September unless some unforeseen situation develops.

District Attorney Weeks today made a formal complaint to the Supreme Court Justice Morschauer, charging that George S. Ward, father of Walter S. Ward, has entered a conspiracy to defeat the ends of justice.

Justice Morschauer, who empaneled the grand jury, investigating the Ward case, was asked by the district attorney to sit as a committing magistrate and investigate the charges brought by the district attorney.

George S. Ward, for whom a subpoena has been issued, is now said to be in Philadelphia.

ANNAPOLIS EDITOR IS REPRIMANDED

"Cruel and Unwarranted" Treatment of Fellow-Member of Navy Class Is Charged

Washington, June 15.—Acting-Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt today officially reprimanded Ensign J. L.
Olmstead, editor of the Lucky Bag, the year book of this year's graduating class at Annapolis, for "cruel and unwarranted" treatment of Leonard Kaplan, a fellow member of the class.

Secretary Roosevelt told Ensign Olmstead that he had been guilty of "an act which casts a grave doubt as to your possession of those qualifications essential to an officer in the United States Navy," and added that "the department will require from you in the future evidence of a fundamental change in your attitude toward your comrades in the service."

Others, especially the associate editors, the naval secretary asserted, undoubtedly were guilty in some measure for the affront to Kaplan, which consisted of perforating the page in the year book containing his photograph and biography so that it might be removed. But, added Mr.
Roosevelt, the primary responsibility rested on Ensign Olmstead.

"LABORERS" VISIT GLENS FALLS HOTELS, ARREST 8

Glens Falls, June 15.—Attired as laborers, three prohibition enforcement agents visited six saloons here today and arrested eight persons on charges of violating the Volstead act.
The defendants are held in bonds of $1,000 each by United States Commissioner Norman Metzner. In each place visited, the dry agents said, whiskey was obtained, and at two establishments they seized beer alleged to have a greater alcoholic content than is permitted by law.

The men arrested are: John H.
Madden, owner, and Thomas Gay, bartender, Hotel Madden; Newman Peabody, owner, and Walter Lawry, bartender, Peabody's hotel; Edward Buckley, owner of the Globe hotel; Daniel Hurley, owner of Hurley's hotel; Dominic Bruner, owner of Bruner's hotel; and John Jones, proprietor of a saloon on Warren street.

MAN FOUND STARVING ON STREETS OF CITY

New York, June 15.—Literally starving on the streets of New York, John Keane, 62, of Sioux City, Iowa, collapsed today and was taken to Bellevue hospital.

After he had tasted his first food in several days, Keane recovered sufficiently to give his name and to explain that he had been wandering here, homeless and friendless, for "a long time." Just how long, he could not say.

Mrs. James Lerner, 57, lying in her bed without food for almost a week, too weak from starvation and illness to summon aid, was discovered tonight by a neighbor who heard moans in her apartment. He summoned the police who took her to a hospital unconscious.

IRELAND AS A DOMINION

New Irish Constitution Made Public on Eve of Elections Throughout the Country Today

UP-TO-DATE PLAN

Every Member of Free State Parliament Must Subscribe to the Constitution

(By the Associated Press.)

London, June 15.—The draft of the new Irish constitution, made public tonight on the eve of the Irish elections tomorrow, gives, as the document itself reads, force of law to the Anglo-Irish treaty and expressly declares that any provision of the constitution or any amendment thereto, or any law enacted under the constitution which is in any respect repugnant to the treaty, shall be void and inoperative.

The constitution thus embodies connection with the British crown, already established in the treaty, and generally places the relations between Ireland and the Empire on the same basis as Canada and the other dominions.

The constitution requires every member of the Free State parliament to subscribe faith and allegiance to the constitution and swear to be faithful to the king in virtue of the common citizenship of Ireland and Great Britain and Ireland's membership in the British commonwealth of nations.

Up-to-date Document.

The document contains 79 articles and is considered an up-to-date instrument, not only granting female suffrage, proportional representation and a referendum to the people, but also empowering the people themselves to initiate legislation. It gives to the chamber great power with respect to money bills, without control from the senate, thus duplicating the position between the British house of commons and the house of lords.

It empowers the Free State from active participation in war without the consent of parliament, except in the case of actual invasion, and gives the Irish supreme court the fullest powers, only stipulating for the right of a citizen to appeal to the king in council against the supreme court's decision.

It provides for freedom of religion and conscience, gives the State citizens full protection against the arbitrary power of court-martial, and extends to parliament exclusive control over the armed forces as stipulated in the treaty.

Arthur Griffith, before leaving London tonight, made a statement in which he said:

"The constitution is that of a free and democratic state and under it Ireland for the first time in centuries secures the power to control and develop her own resources and live her own national life."

MICHIGAN CENTRAL CARRIED 1,700,588 LESS PASSENGERS

New York, June 15.—Net railway operating income of the Michigan Central Railroad company for 1921 aggregated $15,402,271, an increase of $4,894,601 over the previous year, according to the detailed statement made public today.

Total operating income of $15,423, 538 increased $4,857,377 and gross income of $15,775,127 increased $4,051, 732, leaving a net income of $7,725, 337, a gain of $3,919,551.

Passenger revenue of $20,016,387 showed a decrease of $5,411,166, the number of passengers carried falling off by 1,700,588.

D. & H. Must Establish Automatic Train Control

Washington, June 15.—Final orders were issued today by the Interstate Commerce Commission to 49 of the principal railroads of the country to establish automatic train control devices on 3,000 miles of their lines before January 1, 1925.

The commission declared the "art of automatically controlling trains has long since passed the experimental stage."

An incidental estimate was made that equipping a single-track road and necessary rolling stock for automatic control under one type of device would cost about $1,500 a mile.

Among the railroad named, and the portions of their lines to be equipped, are:

Boston & Albany, between Boston and Albany; Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railway, between Rochester and Butler, Pa.; Delaware & Hudson, between Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Albany; Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, between Hoboken and Burlough; Erie, between Jersey City and Buffalo; Lehigh Valley, between Jersey City and Buffalo; Long Island, between Jamaica and Montauk; New York Central, between Albany and Cleveland.

BITTER BONUS FIGHT LIKELY

President and Senate Leaders in Conference Regarding Course of Procedure

HARDING UNCHANGED

Believes Tariff Bill Should Be Acted on First; Party Conference Called

Washington, June 15.—A bitter fight in the senate next week over the bonus issue was predicted in all senate quarters tonight as a result of numerous informal Republican conferences today to which President Harding was a party.

A call for a formal party conference of Republican senators next Monday morning to discuss procedure with the bonus and pending tariff bill together with the proposed majority closure rule, was called late today by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican floor leader, after he had conferred with the President and many Republican senators.

Also next Monday, if the naval appropriation bill is passed meanwhile a motion to lay aside the tariff bill and proceed with the bonus measure will be made by Senator McCumber, Republican of North Dakota, chairman of the finance committee and in charge of both bills.

President Harding, after his conference with Senator Lodge, was said to be still strongly of the opinion that the tariff bill should be pressed and not delayed by consideration of the bonus measure.

Lodge and Harding Agreed.

The President's view was said to be shared by Senator Lodge who, after his return to the Capitol, conferred with Republican members of the finance committee and other Republican senators with a view to holding the tariff bill before the Senate despite the sentiment favoring temporary substitution of the bonus bill. Several days of conference are expected before any final decision is reached.

The President and Senator Lodge, who returned yesterday from a ten-days' trip to Massachusetts, went over the legislative situation briefly and agreed every effort should be made to pass the tariff bill at the earliest possible date. Senator Lodge told his colleagues that business interests of New England were virtually unanimous in asking as speedy disposal of the tariff bill as possible.

The Republican conference committee appointed to consider the Kol-logg-Lenroot closure rule, met today and framed a report for Senator Lodge. The report was said to be almost unanimous that a majority of the rule should be adopted but Republican leaders said it was not probable that the rule would be brought up until after disposal of the tariff bill.

BUSTER PLEADED OWN CASE.

Chicago, June 15.—"Buster," a bulldog described by Alexius Lampe as a "large, awa-inspiring, evil-looking beast," successfully pleaded his own case in municipal court today. Lampe told how the dog attacked him and asked $1,000 repairs. Then someone whistled. "Buster" hopped off a chair, waddled to the witness box, sniffed Lampe's trousers, wagged a friendly tail at the bailiff, rubbed against the judge's leg, and then hopped back on his chair.

In a few seconds came the verdict —discharged.

TRAIN WRECK IN ALABAMA.

Mobile, Ala., June 15.—Train No. 4 of the New Orleans and New York Limited on the Louisville and Nashville road split a switch three miles north of Canoe, Ala., crushing through a potato packing shed, shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The engine overturned and the mail, baggage and express cars are across the track, a complete wreck. The first three coaches were badly smashed. The first Pullman was derailed.
Only one fatality is reported. Willie Blundean, a small boy, who was in the packing shed, being killed.

GENERAL CHANG SURROUNDED.

Tien Tsin, China, June 15.—General Chang Tso-Lin's army on the Manchurian-Chi-Li front has been surrounded by General Wu Pei-Fu's troops driving along the railway towards Mukden, according to unconfirmed advices received here.

TWO NEW TYPHOUS CASES

New York, June 15.—Health Commissioner Copeland reported two new cases of typhus in Brooklyn. Both patients are women, who emigrated from the United States several years ago and he was at a loss to explain how they contracted the disease.

CIVILIAN NAVAL RESERVE FAVORED

Senate Votes $3,000,000 to Carry Out Plan; King Criticizes
"Extravagance"

Washington, June 15.—The navy department plan to create a civilian naval reserve force, similar to the National Guard, was adopted today by the senate in accepting an amendment of the appropriations committee increasing the house provision of $50,000 to $3,000,000 to begin the work. Under the plan, 3,000 officers and 10,000 enlisted men would be moulded into a civilian reserve force, paid for one month's services annually, and be subject to call to duty. Reservists would receive two weeks' training annually on naval vessels.

The naval reserve plan was adopted during initial consideration of the $294,000,000 naval budget. Major contests went over until tomorrow.
Senator King, Democrat of Utah, criticizing alleged "extravagance" in the appropriations and giving notice that he would make an effort to reduce the navy personnel of 38,000 men voted by the house and left unchanged by the committee. Senator Borah, Republican of Idaho, also criticized the size of the budget.

DISASTROUS FIRE SWEEPS SEASHORE

Bungalow Colony of Arverne Laid Waste by Conflagration, Fanned by Strong Wind

New York, June 15.—A disastrous fire swept the seashore bungalow colony of Arverne, between Rockaway and Far Rockaway, late today, destroying scores of summer homes on a large area between the boulevard and the ocean.

Fanned by a strong wind, the flames spread with such rapidity that several houses were dynamited in an effort to check the conflagration. Fire apparatus was called from all adjacent localities and later seven engine companies and two fireboats were sent from Manhattan.

The Israel Orphan asylum was destroyed, but the children were removed safely to Rockaway Park before the flames reached the building. The Long Island railroad station and the coast guard station also were burned.

NATURALIZATION BILL IS FAVORABLY REPORTED

Washington, June 15.—The Cable bill, which would regulate the naturalization and citizenship of married women, was favorably reported today by the house committee on immigration and naturalization and will be pressed by the committee for consideration in advance of the merchant marine bill.

The measure provides that any woman eligible for citizenship who marries a citizen of this country or any alien woman whose husband has been naturalized after its passage shall become a citizen of the country by reason of her marriage or the naturalization of her husband, but can be naturalized upon compliance with all the requirements of the naturalization laws.

The bill also would retain for a woman citizen of the United States all naturalization rights she held before marriage to an alien unless she formally renounced her citizenship or married an alien ineligible to citizenship.

WOULD RESTRICT INSURANCE COMPANIES' INVESTMENTS

New York, June 15.—The Lockwood legislative committee will draft and present to the legislature bills designed to restrict the investments of fire insurance companies. Samuel L. Undermyer, counsel to the committee, announced at the committee hearing today. This announcement followed the taking of testimony intended to show that some of the fire insurance companies buy "securities that their own officers underwrite in syndicates," that the officers "get underwriting commissions," and that the insurance companies "get securities on which there have been large losses."

In one case, the testimony showed a stock and bond firm bought shares at 90 and with a syndicate of underwriters in which a fire insurance company participated, received 93, while the public paid 98.

Holy Cross Youngster Has Better of Veterans Adams; Score 4 to 2.

New York, June 15.—The New York Giants defeated Pittsburgh today in a closely-contested struggle, the world champions winning their sixth consecutive victory. The score was 4 to 2. His triple in the sixth drove in Young with the tying run and his double in the eighth sent in Meusel and Young with the winning runs.

UNADILLA LOSES TO NORWICH

Clarke's Aggression Take Kindly to Williams' Offense and Dent Rubber Seven Times in Second Round—Scully More Effective—Norwich at Unadilla on Friday.

Unadilla, June 15.—Unadilla's ball team was the attraction at the opening of the season at Norwich today where 2,000 fans had the pleasure of seeing the Norwich team defeat Unadilla, 9 to 3. The afternoon was declared a holiday and the stores and most of the factories closed. Johnson's band led a procession of players and fans to the fair grounds where the game was played.

Norwich sent Williams to the show in the second inning when five successive hits netted Norwich seven runs. Clarke, formerly of Cincinnati, has gotten a fast bunch together and the game was characterized by hard hitting on the part of both teams.

A sensational catch of what was thought started for a home run drive by Hunter by Daley, after a hard run to deep outfield, was a feature, as was also a shoe string catch after a hard run by Splann of Unadilla. Hanley for Norwich and Keating for Unadilla, both at short, did some brilliant fielding with a clean record.

Unadilla plays Oneonta at Oneonta today and Norwich here on Friday and at Norwich again on Saturday. The tabulated figures of today's ball game follow:

Short, but Effective.

A two-inning indoor baseball game won 7 to 6, by Gene Ward's nine over Chuck VanDeusen's team featured the picnic held last evening at Cliffside by the Rotary club of Oneonta. Bart Lane and Norm Getman were the battery for the winners and Eddie Rucker and Jack Sitts for the conquered.

Bill Finigan, Chuck VanDeusen and Epe Elmore served an appetizing supper, with "hot dogs" heading the menu. After the lunch, Harold Ford and Bart Lane outpitched all comers at quota but lost the closing match to Eddie Rucker and Ev Hicks, the "rubber" being called off on account of darkness.

Y. M. C. A. Team Wins Swatfest.

The Y. M. C. A. team slaughtered the Methodist team in a regulation nine-inning game in Herrieff's league last evening in Wilber park. The final score was 38 to 14 and needless to say the ball was pounded to all corners of the lot. The church boys used three pitchers—Miller, Kerr and Bolton—while "Boys" Secretary Smith, twice for the "Y." Bureau was the Methodist catcher and Kinney the "Y." The "Y." team now has won three games and lost three, giving it an average of .500.

IT WAS A GOOD GAME

From the Spectator's Point of View—Several Good Fielding Acts—Glants Simply Could Not Get Runs in Paying Quantities.

The Cortland baseball club managed to keep at least one run between them and the Oneonta Giants yesterday afternoon from the second inning until the conclusion of the affair, although it did look at times as if the locals would shove the margin to one side and at least even things up. It took the winners three innings to get rid of their supply of errors, one to each of these frames, and from then on they handled the pill to perfection.

However, they nearly handed the home team a run in each of the first two innings. In the opening session, after Gilmore had been put out, Purcell meandered to the set-a-way bag on four bad ones, but was forced to second when Alexander hit to the pitcher, the latter relaying the ball to second for a forced out. Reagan received the sphere, but was not content with a single killing, and went on to have the man at first had not Moss dropped it. Alexander winding up on second, a passed ball was the means of advancing him to third, but Brown and Moss worked together like a piece of machinery and retired Hatch.

Gould got a safe hit in front of the plate, scoring when Mahady shoved his club against the ball for a terrific drive into deep left. This was indeed a bad situation from the standpoint of the fans. However, Snyder caused Moss to go down on three strikes, McDonald to put a foul fly which was easy for Sinstack at third, and Rawley also to strike at bad ones.

Bridwell opened the Oneonta portion of the same inning by a single across the second bag into center, going to the middle bag on a wild pitch and to third after Rawley had retrieved the globule and made a poor peg to third, which peg was absolutely unnecessary as the manager had made no effort to get beyond second. It certainly looked like a tie up of the score right away, but the visitors proceeded to mow down the next three on infield outs.

McDonald and Rawley each got a single in the fifth, the second one putting the first runner on third, whence he scored on Lyman's sacrifice fly to Reid. Rawley had been caught trying to stretch his single into two bases.

With two-thirds of the last of the fifth past, Gilmore singled to right and was brought in by Purcell's fence buster to left field. The ball rolled to the fence, showing right there that it wasn't any mean effort. The Bronx Flash didn't waste any time on the paths and endeavored to make it good for four bases, but the fielding was perfect and he was caught at the plate by a mere fraction.

A bingle, which the fielder let get past him in right, permitted Brown to reach second and a ground out shoved him along to third. Gould hit to Bridwell, who, by fake throws, kept the runner undecided as to just what he was going to do, and ran across the diamond when he started a run-up which ended in the retirement of Brown, Gould getting second. Mahady hit to Gilmore, who tumbled, letting Gould get into the run column.

Two singles, a ground out and a passed ball manufactured the locals second and final score.

Cortland's fourth complete circuit was made in the seventh in exactly the same manner as the one in the fifth inning, the same two men singled and the same batter was out on a sacrifice fly to the same fielder.

Moss drove the ball into deep left, getting to third, and scoring on McDonald's infield out in the ninth, which ended the scoring for the afternoon.

With two men down in the final stanza, Reid and Sinstack got safeties to left, only to have the game end by an exceedingly good move by the opposition's third sacker just when it seemed as if a rally might be started.

There were several fine cheer raising fielding efforts by both teams. Hatch, Reid and Gilmore all came in for favorable comment on their work in the field, while several of the visitors got a hand for their efforts.

This afternoon will see Unadilla here again.

You Auto Know

The Pleasure Your Dimmers Give Others

By WALLACE REID

Around New York City and in certain other sections it is an unwritten rule to dim the headlights when approaching another car, yet in other sections to do so is the exception rather than the rule. Travel north and east out of the metropolis and just as soon as you pass the southern border of New England, headlight dimming is no longer looked upon with favor and if an occasional motorist winks his lights at you as a gentle request for you to switch to the small bulbs, you make up your mind that he is not a native but a visitor from New York. I have followed both customs according to the demands of the section of the country that I happened to be in and feel that there is more to be said in favor of keeping the big lights on than turning them off, provided—and this is important—the lights are equipped with lenses which not only meet the legal requirements but do effectively cut off the glare. Those in favor of employing the small lights argue that the big lights, even with their lenses, make it difficult to see the road beyond. But on the other hand, if the lights are turned off, the eyes are so accustomed to the bright light that the path ahead looks absolutely black and nothing can be distinguished, whereas if the big lights are maintained it is possible to see the ditch and a fringe of the road adjacent with sufficient distinctness to avoid accident. Another compelling reason for leaving them on is to discern pedestrians at the side of the road. If a man is walking away from you he cannot see your small lights nor will he hear you because of the noise of the other car, but the beams of your big lights playing about his feet will warn him of your approach. I am in favor of leaving the big lights on at all times, for the safety of pedestrians, if for no other reason.

THE COUNTRY AND THE COURTS

It has long been the opinion of Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin that anybody who disagreed with him was one part ignorant and at least two parts despot, and he has not hesitated to vent his wrath upon the offender. The latest targets for his arrows are the distinguished jurists who preside over the supreme court of the United States, and their offense was the child labor decision of about a month ago. It is of course unfortunate even from their own standpoint, that it was not possible for the members of the court to make the constitution conform to what they believed to be best, but as sworn members of the highest tribunal of government they had no alternative than to interpret the fundamental law as it exists. This they did, and LaFollette condemns them for it.

There is a method provided in the fundamental law itself for changes made necessary by varying conditions of human life. This method is amendment, and it has on nineteen different occasions been resorted to. Amendment was prohibited, of course, until the constitution was amended, and prohibition was obtained. True it takes time, but that is perhaps the best thing about it—that a sufficient time be allotted for deliberation, in order that no hasty and unconsidered law shall be enacted.

What men of the LaFollette type want is to have their own convictions as to law immediately made statutory, so that they can be ready at once to condemn the government, the chief executive, the supreme justices and the constitution of the country itself. This would be a dangerous plan to follow and they are dangerous men who would urge it. If the perpetuity of the best government in the world is to be maintained there is just one thing to do and that is to wait upon the orderly processes which by which laws are made, and to have some time in mind consideration that after all the other man may be right even if he differs with our own convictions.

MORE HEAT FROM LESS GAS

For the past eighteen months scientists of the United States Bureau of Standards have been working on apparatus for testing the efficiency of gas burners in an effort to obtain greater utilization of heat values. They believe that they can work out methods for adoption in the manufacture of gas-using apparatus by which gas consumption will materially be minimized. In view of the decreasing supply of coal and oil, and the increasing supply of both bases for gas manufacture, with consequently inevitable increase in cost, the efforts of the government experts will be watched with interest.

Specific tests have proved that some appliances in common use utilize only 15 to 20 per cent of the heat value of the gas. By a readjustment of the burners or displacement of inefficient appliances it has been found possible to utilize 50 to 60 per cent of the heat value. One of the experimenters says the economy of domestic burners can be increased 100 per cent—equivalent to reducing the customer's bill one-half.

This improvement, when worked out, will be comparable to that made in electric lighting by the perfection of the tungsten lamp which gives four times as much light as the old style carbon filament lamp for the use of a given quantity of electricity—that is, it gives the customer as much light for one quarter the money.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

"All Is Well"

Prof. George Trumbull Ladd of Yale wrote his own epitaph of 11 words. Here it is:

"I have lived and loved and labored and all is well."
Professor Ladd was one of those luminous souls whose mind knows all and whose heart embraces all. He died in his will that his body be buried in the cypress tree which he planted in 1907 in the yard of the School of Commerce in Nagasaki, Japan.

That all was well was the last thought of that sterling American, Franklin D. Lane, who, upon his death bed wrote: "If it be the will of the great Creator to receive my soul back again to that great ocean of souls from which it sprang, then I accept." Again the soul of man in perfect tune with the infinite.

But the greatest epitaph of hope and courage ever penned was that of Benjamin Franklin, written when but a youth. Some one told Franklin that he was doomed to die early, and hence this paragraph written from his pliant's bench:

The body of B. Franklin, printer, like the cover of an old book, its contents torn out and stripped of its gilt and lettering, lies here, food for worms. But the work itself shall not be lost for it will, as he believes, appear again in a new and better edition, revised and corrected by the Author.

All is well.—[Utica Observer Dispatch]

Making Farm Hazardous.

The offices of the elements constitute the greatest hazard in farming a gamble that the average business man does not take.

The farmer may prepare his soil, plant his seed, cultivate his growing crops and then just before the harvest time a storm comes along and in twenty minutes destroys all that he has nurtured. Sunday's downpour and gale in central New York is a demonstration of this condition.

Drought and excessive rain are both the enemy of the eastern farmer. Either may render his whole year's work useless and unprofitable. It is a hazard faced by every man who depends upon the soil for his living and for a little more. The city business man faces many dangers but few that can undo his work as quickly as the elements often obliterate the work of the farmer.—[Watertown Republican]

Force of Public Opinion.

If women want to wear knickerbockers they will do so. The only force strong enough to prevent it is public opinion, and if public opinion disapproves women will not want to wear them. That's all there is to it, that, magistrates to the contrary notwithstanding. Anyway male America cannot well object. Men had the shames and fumbled it sadly.—[Cleveland Plain Dealer]

Paid Him a High Compliment.

Motorcycle Cop—Hey, you better out down on that speed!
Motorist—How fast was I going?
Cop—At least 30 miles an hour.
Motorist—Will you please put that down in writing? I want to sell this darned old boat.—[Florida Times-Union]

A Matter of Experience.

"Ah, suitably glad to see you" out on his horsepiddle, Sam. What does happen to you in dar'?"
"Ah, done had me bones r'ayed."
"Ah, Ah bets a five spot dey was loaded!"—[Pickup]

In the Meantime.

At Niagara Falls they are rehearsing a workman's compensation case which originated three years ago. In the meantime how have the widow and children been living?—[Buffalo Express]

We Might Have Worried

If so many of these threatened railroad strikes hadn't blown up we would be more worried about the one that is threatened now.—[Watertown Times]

Limitations of a Gift.

Constantinople's mendicants have voted not to accept gifts of less than two cents. Did the Turks never hear that beggars must not be choosers?—[New York Herald]

Sobering Up.

This is the time of the year when automobilists are fined and imprisoned for reckless driving. They sober down—or up—somehow as the season advances.—[Buffalo Express]

MUST PROVIDE FLAGMAN

To Protect the Temporary Crossing at East Worcester while the Overhead Bridge is Being Constructed—Substantial Structure Ordered

In its order recently made the Public Service commission, in directing that the present grade crossing east of East Worcester over the D. & H. tracks be closed and the traffic diverted to a new overhead crossing orders that the new overhead structure shall consist of a through plate girder, cold floor bridge about 60 feet long spanning the three existing tracks and supported by abutments of mass concrete. The roadway shall be 30 feet wide between wheel guards and shall be surfaced with concrete. The minimum clearance between the lowest point on the structure and the top of the rail shall be 22 feet. The earth approaches shall be graded to a width of 28 feet measured between the tops of slopes on embankments and in line of ditches in cuts. The roadway is to be surfaced to a width of 16 feet with a five inch bottom course of broken stone or gravel and a 3-inch top course of waterbound macadam. Suitable drainage structures are to be provided where necessary. The stream east of the railroad shall be relocated so as to cross the highway at a point about 100 feet east of the present culvert.

The order requires that substantial guard railing shall be provided at all points where the height of the embankments exceed three feet. It is also ordered that a temporary grade crossing be established adjacent to the present crossing when the construction is started and that the said temporary crossing be maintained and protected at all hours by a flagman until the completion of the new overhead crossing and the opening of the same to traffic.

The D. & H. company is required to prepare the plans specifications etc. for the proposed overhead bridge and abutments and construct the same and the approaches are to be designed and constructed by the State Highway department. The route of the highway will be changed to afford a better grade of the approach to the bridge from the east and the grade at no point is to exceed a six per cent one.

Trolley Cars Run Through

Trolley cars which on account of the big storm of last Saturday had found it necessary to transfer passengers a short distance this side of Mohawk, are again able to run through without change from Oneonta. The first car to make the trip through was the last car out of this city Wednesday evening and yesterday the cars were running on time without interruption of service. A large force of workmen was employed to make the necessary repairs which included the use of 78 rails and 3,000 new ties.

Special meeting of I. A. of M. and Helpers No. 74, Friday evening, June 16, at 7:30 p. m. Matters of vital importance to all members will be transacted. All members are urged to be present. By order of President. adit 2t

DEATHS.

Mrs. Nellie Hayes Mahon.

A telegram received by the family in Oneonta yesterday morning brought tidings of the death of Mrs. Charles H. Mahon at 9:25 Wednesday evening at her home on Washington Heights, New York city. Mrs. Mahon had been in ill health for a long time, but the immediate cause of death was heart disease, with other complications. The funeral will be held Saturday morning in New York city, and interment will be in Calvary cemetery in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Mahon, whose maiden name was Nellie Hayes, was born in Casenovia about 58 years ago and came to Oneonta in early life, residing in this city until about seven years ago, when she moved to New York, where she had since lived with her son, Charles, and daughters, Miss Vera Mahon and Mrs. James Stone. The surviving members of the family are her husband and six children, Charles and Miss Vera Mahon and Mrs. Stone of New York, William and Wallace Mahon of Oneonta and Mrs. William Murphy of Chisholm, Minn. She was a member of the Roman Catholic church, and was a much respected woman with many friends who will learn with deep regret of her death. Mr. Mahon and his sons, William and Wallace, leave this morning for New York to be present at the funeral.

Mrs. Leon D. Smith, who has been a patient at the Parshall hospital, this city, for fourteen weeks undergoing two operations, during that time, has sufficiently recovered so as to return to her home at 24 Academy street, and under the care of her physician, Dr. N. W. Getman, she is slowly regaining her strength, which is very gratifying to her many friends.

Commencing Thursday, June 22 dances will be held Thursdays and Saturdays at Sherman lake. Adv. 4t

Have You Piles?

Then You Have Something to Learn. Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonard was first to find the remedy. His prescription, EX-1001, is now sold by all druggists. Dr. Leonard tried it in 1,000 cases with the marvelous record of success in 98 per cent, and then decided it should be sold under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications. Get a package of EX-1001 from Geo. S. Slade today. It has given safe and lasting relief to thousands and should do the same for you—it seldom fails. Adv.

GIVES BACHELOR DINNER

Wendell Denton Entertains in Anticipation of Marriage.

Last evening at Cranes Tea Room in Cooperstown, Wendell J. Denton of this city, gave a breakfast dinner to 14 of his more intimate friends, the affair being in the nature of a bachelor dinner in anticipation of his coming marriage to Miss Harriet West of Rhinecliff, the date of which was, however, not announced.

The young gentlemen motored to Cooperstown, leaving here at 6 o'clock and following the feast which was "some feed" in the language of the throng, there were informal responses in which reminiscences at the expense of some member of the party abounded. The occasion was keenly enjoyed.

The guests of Mr. Denton presented him with a combination smoking set and reading lamp of pleasing pattern. The party reached Oneonta, returning about 12:30 o'clock, which is doing well for bachelors.

Out of the Ordinary.

A humming bird's nest is a curiosity and wonderful sight to visitors in museums, and but few persons have had the privilege of watching one of the tiny birds build its dwelling. W. C. Merritt of Washingtonville, Orange county, has seen a humming bird build its nest within six feet of his dwelling. The nest is about the size of a 50 cent piece while the center is the size of a penny. The eggs are pure white and the size of peas. The birds have full confidence in their human friends as they work daily within arms length of the family.

NESTED ON JOURNAL BOX

CAR INSPECTOR FINDS YOUNG ROBINS SECURE AFTER 50-MILE RIDE.

Engineer Henry Hopt of Rose Avenue returns Young Birds to Gravel Siding from Which Car Was Taken—Believed Robins Survived the Experience.

The other day while inspecting some flat cars which had been taken from a gravel switch near West Davenport and hauled to Arkville, Inspector Van Valkenburgh at the latter place found upon the journal box of one of the cars a robin's nest in which were two young robins and one egg. After conferring with Engineer Henry P. Kopf, residing at 3 Rose avenue, this city, who had pulled the car from the siding and drawn it to Arkville, it was agreed that the young robins should be returned to their mother if possible.

Accordingly Mr. Kopf took the little birds and nest in charge and carefully protecting them from escape from the nest or injury on the return trip halted at the siding from which the cars had been removed and placed the nest with the young birds still in it in a clump of bushes standing not far from the spot where the car had stood for some weeks.

To make the story perfect it should be stated that when he reached the gravel bank switch he observed two robins flying about and chirping away as if much excited and that as soon as the nest was placed in the clump of bushes the mother bird quickly found the nest and returned to it. So the story is told.

However, Mr. Kopf states that he cannot confirm this last feature of the story and as he could only halt for a moment on the main track. For five days afterward the nest was still in place with the egg intact but the young robins had gone. The fact that the egg remained in position warrants the belief, it is suggested, that the mother bird found her young and that two robins are adding their music to the morning carols somewhere about the spot, thanks to the kindly instincts of the railroad men, whose conduct will place them upon the honor roll with all lovers of birds.

plishing for the betterment of the young and in the final King Service gives his blessing to his loyal and faithful followers and leads them out again into the busy world where there is work for all who serve.

Interluded a group of girls gave "Dance of the Maids of Service" in a manner that delighted the spectators. Following the presentation of the pageant, the members of the primary graduating class ascended the platform and ranked themselves in rows, facing Miss Pettit, who delivered the diplomas. Forty-eight children received their diplomas last evening. Miss Pettit in an introductory address stated her pleasure in being privileged to give them their diplomas. The class is a large one this year and teachers and pupils alike are to be congratulated upon so successful an outcome of the year's work. Members of the graduating class are as follows:

Primary Graduates.

Eleanor Armstrong, Stanley Armstrong, Grace Blanchard, Helen Bynam, Perry Chestney, Frances Contow, Anna Cook, Eva Cook, Paul Crutty, Mildred Dyer, Irene Glavin, Ella May Goodenough, Harper Hinkinson, Lester Hinkinson, Doris Jewell, Harriett Hix, Frances Hodge, Allen Hoxie, Edwin Joslyn, Harriet Knapp, Audrey Koch, Helen Lynch, Robert Lynch, Dorothy McClellan, Belle McIntosh, Stuart Mackey, Donald Meagley, Stanley Murdock, Sarah Packer, Hubert Parker, Mary Parshall, Marion Pashley, Donald Patten, George Patten, Wilson Patten, Margaret Patten, Mary Vaughn, Russell, Gladys Russell, Lillian Russell, Gladys Shaw, William Slavin, Gerald Smith, Harriet Tinklenough, Bruce Townsend, Frederick Townsend, Louise Vallee, John VanWoert, Evelyn Watcous, Alberta Wright.

The year's work with the pupils of the grades has been most successful. Interest shown by parents in the work being done by the children at school has had a most encouraging effect. The teachers have worked hard and long toward the successful outcome of the year's work and they deserve much credit for the fine showing made by the youngsters last evening. The school year is now over and done and, as Professor Lynch so fittingly stated in his opening remarks, "All is forgiven and forgotten." There is needed rest in view for the teachers, and a joyous vacation ahead for the children.

EX-SERVICE MEN

HAVE OWN RANCHES

Rehabilitation Plan Carried Out at Brawley, Cal., Is Happy Success, Government Finds

Brawley, Cal., June 13. — The rehabilitation of disabled ex-service men under a training system worked out by the authorities of the Brawley High school, and known as the "Brawley plan," is a success according to a recent report made by a special committee appointed by government officials to make an investigation of the work being done here.

The committee found a group of 57 contented and happy ex-service men, although all of them were more or less disabled during the recent war. A majority of them are married, and each has a ranch of his own, ranging in size from five to 40 acres. They are looking forward to the day when the indebtedness will be paid off and deeds obtained to their property.

While High schools in many parts of the country have entered into contracts with the government for the rehabilitation of disabled ex-service men, the Brawley plan is attracting special notice. Under it a training school, from slight disability is given the opportunity of purchasing land on long time payments, with interest as low as three per cent. He selects his own tract, being given such assistance as desired, and for his protection the terms of payment and interest rate are passed upon by a committee of local business men.

The Brawley High school employs four instructors, each a specialist in some particular branch of agriculture. These instructors devote all of their time to the trainees in actual work on their ranches, teaching them the latest methods of farming. The government allows each trainee $100 a year for the purchase of farm implements. In several instances these funds have been combined by trainees so that complete sets of farming equipment are available to those who have contributed towards their purchase.

All of the trainees now working under the Brawley plan draw regular monthly allowances from the government. These are handled through a local bank, which assists every trainee to keep his expenses within a scientifically prepared budget.

Referring to the financial success of the Brawley plan from the standpoint of the trainee the committee cited the experience of one ex-service man who was among the first to avail himself of the opportunities offered by the plan. With the assistance of the school experts this trainee planted his acreage to lettuce. The returns from the crop this year were sufficient to pay off all indebtedness, and the newly-made farmer is planning the erection of a $6,000 home.

BETTER AVOID THEM

A Battery Made from the Junk Pile, Says W. O. Brannaman.

"It's human nature to try and get the utmost out of your battery before you scrap it," says Mr. Brannaman of the local Bude Battery Service station. "But when a legitimate service station finally tells you that further repairs can no longer be economically made, rest assured that there isn't much left of that battery that is fit for any further use."

"Nevertheless, there are a number of irresponsible dealers who buy up these junked batteries and from the least worn parts, supplemented by a very few new parts, are assembling other batteries which they sell to the unsuspecting, bargain hunting autoist as 'rebuilt' batteries. "I understand that only about 5% of the total number of parts used in these rebuilt batteries are new. These parts are usually limited to a few new plates, an occasional separator and the electrolyte. Of course, shabby, well-painted cases are used to make the whole look attractive, but no matter what is paid for such batteries, they are expensive and it won't be very long before the motorist realizes that another battery is necessary again."

"The best advice that I can offer a motorist is this—dodge the rebuilt battery shops if you don't want to buy a battery that may contain parts of the very one you junked at some previous time; it isn't beyond the realms of possibility."
